REGIMENT OFF FOR CAMP

LEFT LAST NIGHT FOR HISTORIC GETTYSBURG.

Large Crowds on the Street and a Throng at the Station Give the Soldier Boys a Hearty Send-off. Expected to Reach the Camp at Sunrise This Morning—Appeared in Full Khaki Uniforms, the Old Blue Suits Being Entirely Discarded Except for the Overcoat.

The Thirteenth regiment, under command of Colonel L. A. Waters, left last night at 10 o'clock from the Delaware and Hudson station, for the division encampment at Gettysburg. Thousands cheered the "boys in buff" as they marched from the armory to the station and an immense throng—mostly admiring maids—gave them a big send-off from the platform as the train started on its long journey.

The train was made up of twelve cars and a horse car. Occupying it were Companies A, B, C, D, F, H, K and L of this city; E, of Honesdale, and G, of COLONEL L. A. WATERS.

Montrose, the two latter having come to Scranton during the early evening. Each company had a car to itself and two parlor cars were at the disposal of the officers. The cars were furnished by the Lehigh Valley company, which was given charge of the transportation.

CAR NOT LIGHTED.

There was half an hour's delay, owing to Company H's car not being supplied with light, and Colonel Waters' determination not to start until the car was lighted. The lighting apparatus could not be operated, and it was necessary to make use of lanterns.

The company was under contract to land the regiment at Gettysburg at sunrise. The route was by way of the Delaware and Hudson and Lehigh Valley to Allentown, and thence by the Philadelphia and Reading to the camp. Company I, of Easton, was to join the regiment at Allentown.

The regiment numbers 648 men, and it was thought the morning reports would show very few absentees. All the headquarters men reported. Among the guests of headquarters were Colonel George Hallstead, of the governor's staff, and Major W. W. Inglis, general officer on Brigadier General Gobin's staff.

OFFICER OF THE DAY.

Captain Raub, of Company L, was made officer of the day, and Lieutenant Daly, of Company A, commander of the guard. They were instructed by the colonel to maintain order on the cars that the boys might get some rest during the night. A guard was stationed at each end of every car to prevent all except commissioned officers and first sergeants from going in or out.

The members of the regiment, from colonel down to bugler, wore the full khaki uniform. The only part of the blue clothes taken along was the overcoat. The whole division is to wear khaki during the encampment.

The regiment will return Saturday night next.

An excursion will be run over the Lehigh Valley to Gettysburg from Wilkes-Barre, leaving at 12 o'clock tonight and starting on the return trip tomorrow night at 12 o'clock.

ALCOHOLIC POISONING.

Two Young Men Dangerously Ill as a Result.

Henry Flanagan and Thomas Murphy, two young men residing on Ferdinand street, North Scranton, found a bottle yesterday, containing a quantity of whiskey, and drank it.

Shortly afterwards they became violently ill, and Dr. John Stanton was called to attend them. He pronounced it alcoholic poisoning. The victims remain in an unconscious condition for several hours. At midnight last night Dr. Stanton predicted that they will recover.

A Conservatory Patron Writes:

HARRISBURG, PA., May 6, 1902.

MR. J. ALFRED PENNINGTON,

DEAR SIR:—Allow me to congratulate you on the system you use in the Conservatory. I am much pleased with the progress my daughter is making, which we have not failed to mark at each visit she has made since entering your school. In the matter of "time" and "expression" her improvement is easily apparent. Thanking you for your kind interest in her and wishing you success, I am,
Yours very truly,
WALTER E. KINGSBURY.

"FRISCO CLUB" ORGANIZED.

Will Go to the Grand Encampment on the Pacific Coast in 1904.

The "Frisco Club, 1904," has been organized in this city by a number of Knights Templar, for the purpose of making a trip to the grand encampment of the Knights Templar of the United States, which will meet in San Francisco in September, 1904.

The officers are as follows: President, C. S. Seaman; secretary, W. L. Pryor; treasurer, A. H. Shopland. The organization was effected at a meeting held in the Masonic temple on Thursday evening, and arrangements will be made by the promoters for one of the finest trips imaginable.

Thirty days will be taken up on the trip, going westward by one of the northern railroad routes, and returning by one of the southern routes, stopping off at the St. Louis exposition on the return homeward. It will be a personally conducted tour by representatives of the Pennsylvania railroad, and the party will have a special train through from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast and return.

The members of the club will hold another meeting next Thursday evening to further the plan and make arrangements for enrolling members.

HIS THIRD REPORT.

Referee Ross Awards A. E. Betterly Damages in Sum of $1,617.

Attorney J. Elliott Ross yesterday filed his third report as referee in the case of A. E. Betterly against the city of Scranton, awarding damages in the sum of $1,617 to the plaintiff.

Mr. Betterly owns a property at 141 Bromley avenue, where he resides. In 1887 and 1888 the city constructed a sewer on Bromley avenue, between Jackson and Washburn streets, with which Betterly connected his property. Then came a mine cave in 1890, which caused the city to break and the sewerage flooded into Betterly's cellar.

A man-hole in front of his property was also broken and settled, and around this a cess-pool formed, the sewerage percolating from it into his cellar. This resulted in injury to the property and sickness among the members of the Betterly family.

The referee believes that Betterly was injured to the extent of $1,617, and directs judgment for him in that amount.

Swarthmore College

Offers to young men and women complete courses in Arts, Science, Letters and Engineering, each one of which is intended to insure broad and liberal culture, at the same time providing an opportunity for extended study in one chosen field.

The college is under the management of Friends, but distinctly non-sectarian. Its policy is sound and conservatively progressive. The equipment is complete. An able and experienced faculty not only guides the instruction of the student body but keeps in close relationship with the individual. This intimate fellowship between professor and student is possible only in the small college.

Intelligent Physical Culture is an important feature of the college. The handsome new Gymnasium for young men completes the equipment for the best possible work in this department. For catalogue address Dr. Joseph Swain, president, Swarthmore, Pa.

Next Sunday at Lake Poynelle.

Spend Sunday, July 13, at Lake Poynelle, in the highlands of Wayne. Elevation, 2,000 feet. The most popular resort in Northeastern Pennsylvania, surrounded by a beautiful grove of maple, where all accommodations are to be had for a Sunday's pleasant outing.

A steamer and a new supply of rowboats added to the equipment this season. The grounds and surroundings have been beautified, hotel enlarged, and ample accommodations made to take care of picnic parties.

Train leaves Scranton, via N. Y. O. & W. railway at 8:30 a. m., and returning, leaves the lake at 5 p. m., arriving Scranton about 7 p. m. Return fare from Scranton, $1.00.

MYSTERY IS UNSOLVED.

Coroner's Jury Unable to Locate the Slayer of Luigi Vinazza—Testimony Heard Last Night.

The inquest in the case of Luigi Vinazza, who was shot and killed on the night of June 30 last, near the William A. Colliery at Old Forge, was concluded last night, the jury returning the following verdict:

We find that Luigi Vinazza came to his death in Old Forge borough on the night of June 30, 1902, from a gunshot wound in the head.

From the evidence we believe that the shot which caused the death of the said Luigi Vinazza was fired by some unknown person from a point on the fence, surrounding the William A. Colliery, where the large gates are located.

We find that Luigi Vinazza came to his death in Old Forge borough on the night of June 30, 1902, from a gunshot wound in the head.

The body was found the next morning nearly two hundred feet from where the shooting was done. Vinazza was lying on his back, his feet crossed and his right hand on his chest, as if he had been carefully laid out.

From the nature of the wound in his head, Coroner Saltry believes that Vinazza would have fallen forward, face downward, immediately upon being shot.

The questions that suggest themselves in this mysterious case are: Who did the shooting? Who carried the body from the point where the shooting was done to the spot where it was found? Was the body rifled of the $6 or $7 which Giuseppe swears Vinazza had on his person before the shooting? Was a revolver with empty cartridges placed in Vinazza's pocket after the shooting, Giuseppe swearing that Vinazza had never carried such a weapon?

Four contestants made returns yesterday in The Tribune's Educational Contest. Of these two bettered their positions, while another became possessed of the same number of points that the one holding the place above him has.

Oscar Kipp, of Elmhurst, took second place away from A. J. Kellerman after the latter had held it for one day. There is only one point difference between these young men for the exalted position they are striving for.

Homer Kresge, of Hyde Park, passed Harry Madden, of Scranton, and is now twelfth, eleven points behind Dorsey, who passed them both on Thursday.

Hugh Johnston, of Forest City, made his first return since June 17. He and Louis McCusker, the holder of twenty-third place, have 23 points each.

Maxwell Shepherd, of Carbondale, added a trifle to his score, but without change in position.

The following is the standing of the ten contestants who have scored the largest number of points since July 1:

LACKAWANNA OFFICIALS.

A Number of Them Were in the City Yesterday.

President W. H. Truesdale, General Auditor O. C. Post, Traffic Manager B. D. Caldwell and Chief Engineer W. K. McFarlin, of the Lackawanna railroad, were in the city yesterday on one of their periodical visits.

They have been on a tour of inspection over the road and came up to Scranton from the Bangor and Portland division to "have a look" at things here.

During his stay, President Truesdale visited the office and shops, and held a conference with Mr. Clarke, the general superintendent, over official matters. The party left about 4:30 o'clock for New York.

Vice-President E. E. Loomis, of the coal department, has been in the city several days this week in conference with Superintendent Phillips and Assistant Superintendent Tobey. Superintendent of Dining Car Service F. B. Smith, Superintendent of Telegraph L. R. Foley, and Chief Clerk George A. Moore, of Superintendent Clarke's office, together with their wives, left yesterday for Asbury Park, where they will spend today and tomorrow.

General Superintendent T. E. Clarke was in the city yesterday, and accompanied President Truesdale on his tour of the offices. They had nothing to say regarding the strike situation.
